To the best of my knowledge the information above is correct and I subscribe to the purpose of the VPA: "To advance psychology as a science and profession and as a means of promoting human welfare by the encouragement of psychology in all its branches in the broadest and most liberal manner; by the promotion of research in psychology and the improvement of research methods and conditions; by the improvement of the qualifications and usefulness of psychologists through high standards of professional ethics, conduct, education and achievement; by the increase and diffusion of psychological knowledge through meetings, professional contacts, reports, papers, discussions and publications; by the advocacy of public policy to promote these objectives; thereby to advance scientific interests and inquiry, and the application of research findings to the promotion of the public welfare."
